

R&D ONE Inc. Successfully Defends a Significant Software Claim Originally Prepared by a Large Accounting Firm

For Immediate Release
August, 2011

Markham, ON – R&D ONE Inc. was hired by a large accounting firm to defend a claim that had been prepared for a significant software company. The multi-disciplinary R&D ONE team re-interviewed all of the company's developers, found work that was originally claimed to be ineligible, and uncovered work that was missed altogether. The claims were resubmitted to CRA, defended and successfully accepted.

"We are very proud to now be recognized by our peers as experts in SR&ED and to be capable of defending their claims. It is thanks to the depth of knowledge of our experts, our thorough proprietary approach and professionalism that we have now gained this reputation," says Danny Ladouceur, Principal & Co-Founder.

R&D ONE is committed to maintaining a strong reputation of professionalism and quality. This is why the firm places a strong focus on providing its team of consultants with the proprietary tools, resources, knowledge and training necessary to serve its clients.

The R&D ONE team is recognized as a leading Scientific Research & Experimental Development (SR&ED) full service firm, serving clients of all sizes from a wide range of industries. Our team of professional consultants covering all fields of science and finance deliver quality results using our proven methodology, which has earned us a solid reputation with the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA). In fact, competitors now look to R&D ONE to defend their claims.
